Table Mountain Rancheria to Donate Large Amount of Turkeys

(Fresno, CA) – This has been a very tough year for the residents in the Valley. It has forced many to seek assistance at Poverello House who have never had to before. This Thanksgiving many families in the Valley will be able to enjoy a delicious Thanksgiving meal at Poverello House.

Table Mountain Rancheria will be donating a large amount of turkeys Tuesday, November 25, 2014 at 12:15 p.m., 412 "F" Street, Fresno. Poverello House staff will be on site at that time. Media agencies are invited to cover this event at noon. These turkeys will be prepared into meals to feed the hungry in Fresno, allowing the needy to participate and enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

On a daily basis, Poverello House depends on generous contributions and partnerships from the community to help in serving the needs of the homeless, poor and hungry. In-kind and monetary donations are welcome throughout the year as well as community members volunteering at Poverello House for various jobs. Today Poverello House sees more families than ever before, and serves approximately 1,500 meals every day

The Poverello House is a private, nonprofit, nondenominational organization that has been serving the hungry, homeless and destitute of Fresno, California since 1973. Poverello House provides three meals a day, 365 days a year to anyone, in need, no questions asked. Other services include free medical and dental care through the Holy Cross Clinic; showers and laundry services to the homeless; a day shelter for people on the streets; a safe, overnight shelter for women at Naomi's House, temporary shelter for individuals at the Village or Community of Hope; a 28-bed residential alcohol and drug rehabilitation program; a five-bed transitional home; free clothing, mail service, transportation, referral services and other various social services, and finally, a homeless dog kennel for abandoned pets.
